

Rating Action: Moody's assigns Aa3 debt rating to Great Places Housing Group's proposed bond issuance

Global Credit Research - 03 Oct 2012

London, 03 October 2012 -- Moody's Investors Service has today assigned an Aa3 debt rating to the proposed GBP200 million bond issuance of Great Places Housing Group (issuer rating: Aa3 negative; baseline credit assessment of baa2).

RATINGS RATIONALE

The Aa3 debt rating assigned to the GBP200 million bond issuance of Great Places Housing Group is derived from its Aa3 issuer rating.

The bond is expected to be secured by a portfolio of largely social-housing properties owned by Great Places Housing Association. Most of the properties will be valued at Market Value -- subject to Tenancies (MV-T) at an asset-coverage ratio of 1.15x. Moody's views this threshold of asset coverage as offering limited enhancement for bondholders and as insufficient to lift the rating of the bonds over that of Great Places Housing Group itself.

The proceeds of the fixed-rate 30-year bullet bond are expected to be used to fund Great Places Housing Group's development programme.

Great Places Housing Group outperformed its forecast targets for 2012, having benefitted from lower LIBOR and stronger cash flows associated with higher grants. Overall, financial performance for 2012 was better than we expected, supported by a strong and improving operating margin at 24% of revenues and robust cash flows.

The ratings assigned are based on documentation received by Moody's as of the rating assignment date. If the structures change from those in the documentation submitted to us, Moody's will assess the effect that these differences may have on the ratings.

WHAT COULD CHANGE THE RATING -- UP / DOWN

Any change to Great Places Housing Group's issuer rating would have a corresponding change to its debt rating.

The negative outlook on the issuer rating mirrors the outlook on the UK sovereign ratings, given Great Places Housing Group's strong financial, operational and economic linkages.

With operations spread across the north west of England, Great Places Housing Group is a medium-sized provider of social housing with around 16,000 homes under management.

PRINCIPAL METHODOLOGIES

The methodologies used in this rating were English Housing Associations published in September 2010, and Government-Related Issuers: Methodology Update published in July 2010. Please see the Credit Policy page on www.moody's.com for a copy of these methodologies.

REGULATORY DISCLOSURES

For ratings issued on a program, series or category/class of debt, this announcement provides relevant regulatory disclosures in relation to each rating of a subsequently issued bond or note of the same series or category/class of debt or pursuant to a program for which the ratings are derived exclusively from existing ratings in accordance with Moody's rating practices. For ratings issued on a support provider, this announcement provides relevant regulatory disclosures in relation to the rating action on the support provider and in relation to each particular rating action for securities that derive their credit ratings from the support provider's credit rating. For provisional ratings, this announcement provides relevant regulatory disclosures in relation to the provisional rating assigned, and in relation to a definitive rating that may be assigned subsequent to the final issuance of the debt, in each case where the transaction structure and terms have not changed prior to the assignment of the definitive rating in a manner that would have affected the rating. For further information please see the ratings tab on the issuer/entity page for the respective issuer on www.moodys.com.

The rating has been disclosed to the rated entity or its designated agent(s) and issued with no amendment resulting from that disclosure.

Information sources used to prepare the rating are the following: parties involved in the ratings, parties not involved in the ratings, public information, and confidential and proprietary Moody's Investors Service information.

Moody's considers the quality of information available on the rated entity, obligation or credit satisfactory for the purposes of issuing a rating.

Moody's adopts all necessary measures so that the information it uses in assigning a rating is of sufficient quality and from sources Moody's considers to be reliable including, when appropriate, independent third-party sources. However, Moody's is not an auditor and cannot in every instance independently verify or validate information received in the rating process.

Moody's Investors Service may have provided Ancillary or Other Permissible Service(s) to the rated entity or its related third parties within the two years preceding the credit rating action.
